Premier Lesufi to meet the non-profit organisations this week

12 May 2024

Gauteng Premier Panyaza Lesufi today, May 12, 2024, met with Gauteng MECs for Social Development, Mbali Hlophe and Finance, Jacob Mamabolo to discuss the status of the Non-Profit Organisation's (NPO) process of payment of compliant and successful NPOs for the 2024/25 Financial Year.

The MECs reported that the new rigorous and centralised process has been concluded. Successful and complying NPOs will start getting paid from Monday, 13 May 2024.

Payment will only be provided to those who comply with the Public Finance Management Act (PFMA), in keeping with the Gauteng Provincial Government's commitment to clean governance.

Premier Lesufi will tomorrow meet with representatives from various NPO sectors, and on Tuesday he will convene a general meeting of all NPOs to discuss sectoral matters and provide needed clarification. The Gauteng Department of Social Development will communicate the details of the meetings.
