MEC Lesufi to visit several schools across Gauteng as Term 3 begins

Gauteng MEC for Education, Mr Panyaza Lesufi, will on Monday 26 July 2021 visit a number of schools in Gauteng to check the schools' readiness for the Third Term.

Millions of learners will return to school for the Third Term on Monday following the winter break.

"As a Department, we would like to reiterate to all the parents and guardians of learners in our schools that we have continued to place the safety of all our teaching and non-teaching staff, and our learners, at the heart of all our schooling plans.

We have also recruited thousands of COVID-19 screeners to help with the management of the virus at our schools, including taking temperatures, ensuring hands are regularly sanitized while masks are worn at all times at our schools. These interventions will help us ensure that we continue to provide quality education to our learners; while ensuring the safety of all," MEC Lesufi said.

Details of the MEC's visits:

Time: 07h30 – 08h30

Venue: Eureka High School,
Geduld Rd, Paul Krugersoord, Springs

Time: 09h00 – 10h00

Venue: Laerskool Kommando
97 Northdene Ave, Brakpan

Time: 11h00 – 12h00

Venue: Irene Middle Farm School
