Premier Makhura to engage with investors

Gauteng Premier, David Makhura will on Thursday, 21 November 2019 hold roundtable discussions with investors. The discussions will explore ways of expediting approval processes for infrastructure projects within the province.

The meeting will be attended by investors, development finance institutions, municipalities and state-owned enterprises. This session is part of ongoing engagements between the Gauteng Provincial Government and stakeholders on the plan, Growing Gauteng Together: Gauteng Roadmap to 2030.

There will be panel discussions on Gauteng's mega infrastructure plans, the ease of doing business in the province and a session between investors, mayors and MECs to resolve specific issues pertaining to specific projects in each municipality.

The media is invited as follows:

Date: Thursday, 21 November 2019
