

Premier David Makhura pays tribute to Dr Thandi Ndlovu - a highly impactful leader

25 August 2019

“We are deeply saddened by the news that Dr Thandi Ndlovu, one of the brightest stars that illuminated our country’s path to freedom, passed on in tragic car accident on Saturday morning, the 24th of August 2019. South Africa has lost a compassionate patriot and highly impactful leader whose work positively influenced many sectors of society.” Makhura said.

Dr Thandi Ndlovu has served the people of our country as a freedom fighter in the ANC and ANC Women’s Section and Umkhonto weSizwe; a medical professional who championed of community development in the primary healthcare sector; an entrepreneur and business leader who pioneered the participation of Black women in the construction industry; and a compassionate mentor for young Black professionals and emerging women-owned businesses”. Makhura added.

For all her sterling work, Dr Thandi Ndlovu received many awards recognizing her selfless service, leadership and excellence.

Premier Makhura concluded by calling upon professionals and business leaders to emulate the exemplary life of service of Dr Ndlovu by doing impactful transformative work that empowers women and youth to take their destiny into their own hands.

Premier Makhura conveys heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Dr Thandi Ndlovu and to the Directors and staff of Motheo Construction Group.

Issued jointly by the Gauteng Provincial Government & North West Provincial Government.
