

MEC Maile to brief members of the media

21 April 2021

MEC for Human Settlements, Urban Planning and CoGTA Lebogang Maile will brief members of the media, tomorrow Thursday 22 April 2021, Gauteng Partnership Fund (GPF), 82 Greyston Drive, Sandton, City of Johannesburg.

Late last year (2020), MEC Maile received a number of allegations of impropriety levelled against the Municipal Manager, the Executive Mayor of Rand West City Local Municipality and the Municipality.

In accordance with powers vested under section 106(1)(b) of the Systems Act, MEC Maile, duly instructed the Office of the State Attorney to appoint a Senior Advocate to conduct an investigation into all the allegations. Adv William Mokhare SC was subsequently appointed and has concluded the investigation. The investigation Report was presented to the Gauteng Exco for consideration and implementation. MEC Maile will also use the Media Briefing to announce the necessary steps of implementing the recommendations of the Report. The MEC will also give a status report on other allegations of irregularities that has or is occurring in other municipalities.

Furthermore, MEC Maile will respond to the periodic land and housing invasions currently happening in various parts of the province.

The details are as follows:

DATE: Thursday 21 April 2021

TIME: 11am

VENUE: GPF, 82 Greyston Drive, Sandton
