50-YEAR-OLD FAMILY BUSINESS LENDS A HELPING HAND IN THE FIGHT AGAINST COVID-19

The Acting Gauteng MEC for Health Jacob Mamabolo, will on Wednesday, 18 November 2020, officially open area 366 at Charlotte Maxeke Johannesburg Academic Hospital where an additional 20 critical care beds have been added thanks to the generous donation by the Moosa family.

The family donated R5 Million towards the expansion of ICU bed capacity for Covid-19 patients at the facility. This covered the relevant building conversion, bed supply and other necessary equipment for critical care beds. The improved capacity means that beyond the Coronavirus pandemic the hospital will have additional beds for trauma and surgical cases.

The donation was made in memory of the late Fatima and Dawood Hassam Moosa founders of the Willowton Group, the largest expresser of oilseeds and refiners of edible oils in South Africa which was established in 1970.

The opening of the facility will take place as follows:

Date: Wednesday, 18 November 2020

Venue: Charlotte Maxeke Academic Hospital

Time: 09:00

Ends
