AECI and Dow International to provide 3000 litres of hand sanitizer to Gauteng schools

Diversified business group, AECI Specialty Chemicals, and Dow International, a speciality chemical and advanced materials group, will tomorrow join the Gauteng Department of Education's (GDE) efforts to combat the spread of the novel Coronavirus at the province's public schools.

The two chemicals giants are making a 3000-litre hand sanitizer donation to assist some of Gauteng schools that are most in need in the battle against the deadly Covid-19.

AECI is a diversified Group of 16 companies. It has regional and international businesses in Africa, Europe, South East Asia, North America, South America and Australia. Dow International, which has a presence in 160 countries, is famed for its diversified specialty chemical, advanced materials, agro-sciences and plastics businesses.

Media may attend as follows:

Date: Thursday, 20 May 2021

Time: 10:00 AM

Venue: AECI Place

24 The Woodlands Office Park, Woodlands Drive, Woodmead,
Sandton

For more information, contact the Gauteng Department of Education's Spokesperson, Steve Mabona on 072 574 3860.
