GDE to receive renovated school sanitation facilities

The Gauteng Department of Education (GDE) will on Wednesday, 18 November 2015, receive the newly renovated Makhoarane Primary School, during a special handing over ceremony at the school.

The GDE has partnered with Sulabh International, the world's largest Sanitation Non-Profit Organisation to upgrade sanitation at six schools in Gauteng. The Sanlam Foundation has donated R3 million to Sulabh to renovate and maintain the facilities over a five year period and Makhoarane Primary School is one of the six schools to benefit from this programme.

Details of the event are as follows:

Date: Wednesday, 18 November 2015
Time: 08h00
Venue: Makhoarane Primary School
360 Vuzane Street
Dobsonville
Soweto

For more information contact the Gauteng Department of Education's spokesperson, Phumla Sekhonyane on 071 860 4496 or 011 355 1530.
