Gauteng Education MEC challenges Tshwane South College Council

Gauteng Education MEC Barbara Creecy has challenged the Tshwane South College Council to return the institution to normality and ensure that its employees come back to work. The council is developing a plan to show how they will deal with the challenges faced and take disciplinary action against transgressors. This plan will be shared with the MEC.

A mediation process is currently under way to resolve concerns including the position of the principal and CEO of Tshwane South College. The Atteridgeville campus reopened this morning and all stakeholders were briefed on the ongoing processes to resolve challenges at the college.

The department is committed to ensuring that every learner does well at our institutions and leaves with the values, knowledge, skills and qualifications that will give them the best chance of success.
