Gauteng changing lives through bursaries

Gauteng Premier Ms Nomvula Mokonyane and MEC for Education Ms Barbara Creecy will award bursaries to Gauteng's top performing learners on 27 January 2014.

The bursaries which aims to encourage and actively support the integration of workplace training with theoretical learning, will be awarded to the top 3 learners in the 2013 Senior Certificate examinations from no-fee paying schools in the province.

The awarding of these bursaries is way in which the Gauteng Provincial Government seeks to facilitate the journey individuals make from school, college or university to sustain employment and in-work progression.

The event will take the format of the New Age / Morning Live business briefing. It will be held at the Turffontein Race Course and will be broadcast live on SABC 2 Morning Live show.

Details of the event are as follows

Date: 27 January 2014
Time: 6:30 am - 9:00am
