MEC Tasneem Motara to engage with Hostel Leadership on Hostels Revitalisation.

The MEC for Human Settlements in the Gauteng Province will tomorrow engage with hostel leadership as part of the Department's hostel revitalisation strategy.

This engagement follows MEC Motara's commitment during her 2024/2025 Budget Vote that the Department's Hostels Redevelopment Strategy, aims to turn hostels into dignified family units for beneficiaries.

"We want to redevelop our hostel precincts into integrated quality living spaces for a wide variety of households and we will continue with our consultations and engagements with hostel leaders, as critical stakeholders in the implementation of our Hostels Redevelopment Strategy," said Motara during her budget vote.

The details are as follows:

Time: 11:00am (media briefing)

Date: 06 September 2024

Venue: The Capital Hotel, Sandton. (101 Katherine Str)

Members of the media are encouraged to attend and report on how the Department plans to partner with hostel residents in a quest to turn them in to family units.
