MEC TASNEEM MOTARA TO PARTICIPATE IN THE NELSON MANDELA DAY HOUSE BUILD IN ORANGE FARM

MEC for Human Settlements in Gauteng, Tasneem Motara, will be putting together brick and mortar to build homes for vulnerable families in Orange Farm, as part of the international Nelson Mandela Day commemoration.

The Department of Human Settlements will be working together with Habitat for Humanity South Africa (HFHSA), the Nelson Mandela Foundation, South Africa Broadcasting Corporation, Industrial Development Corporation, Nedbank, Teleperformance, SA SDI Alliance and Proctor & Gamble in building houses for needy families.

"On this Nelson Mandela Day, it is our respective responsibility to do our part to ensure the legacy of President Nelson Mandela lives on. The Department of Human Settlements, Gauteng, is grateful for the continued support of Habitat for Humanity, the IDC and other partners in our agenda of Housing Gauteng. Together, we can honour Madiba's memory by working tirelessly to provide dignified housing and improve the lives of our people" MEC Motara.

MEC Motara will also be joined by the Executive Mayor for the City of Joburg Mr. Kabelo Gwamanda, HFHSA National Director Ms. Daphney Ngoasheng and Ward Councillor Ms. Makhosazana Ndlela, amongst other dignitaries.
