CALL TO SUBMIT PROPOSALS FOR SPORT, ARTS & CULTURE EVENTS

NB: Due to the declaration of the national state of disaster following the Covid-19 pandemic, applicants may submit virtual/on-line projects appropriate for their sectors (sport & recreation and or arts & culture).

The Gauteng Department of Sport, Arts, Culture and Recreation seeks to invest in events or festivals (Sport, Arts and Culture) that align with wider government objectives. The proposals must respond to the effect of COVID-19 on the sport, arts and culture sectors through the use of online/virtual solutions (4th Industrial Revolution initiatives) on relevant digital platforms, Video on Demand, streaming, podcasts, social media, webinars, short animations and documentaries that meet the unique needs and challenges that our communities are facing.

The proposals must include events or festivals that align with the 6th Administration priorities, which are:

- Transforming the economy to serve all people;
- Advancing social transformation including quality education;
- Keeping our communities safe;
- Stepping up the fight against corruption;
- Re-building and renewing a capable and developmental state;
- Advancing nation-building and social cohesion;
- Building a better Africa and a better world.

Applicants must consider the relevant Covid-19 Government Regulations and Guidelines.

The following are requirements for qualification to submit and must be included in your proposal document:

1. Proof of Company Registration/ NGO/ Co-operative
2. Valid Original Tax Clearance Certificate and Pin number
3. Proof of Registration with the Central Supplier Database
4. Certified Copies of ID of members or shareholders
5. Detailed Company Profile with references
6. Bank Confirmation Letter for Account
7. Costed Project Plan
8. Written endorsements from relevant public or private sector organisations

PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE WILL BE NO BRIEFING FOR THIS RFP
