MEC Mazibuko hosts Soweto Safety Summit

The Gauteng MEC for Community Safety, Faith Mazibuko, will tomorrow host a Safety Summit in Bramfisherville, Soweto. This is the first of the 33 summits that the MEC will hold across the province with a view to enhance community participation in crime prevention and promotion of safety.

Through the safety summits, MEC Mazibuko intends to mobilize communities and deliberate on issues relating to crime in their respective areas. Importantly, the MEC wants to engage and partner with all role players in the development of area-specific and implementable action plans to deal with crime in the communities.

The Summit is expected to be attended by local community leadership, business community, experts within the policing sector, Faith Based Organisations leadership, Community Policing Forum and senior leadership of various Law Enforcement Agencies.

Details of the Safety Summit are as follows:

Date : Saturday, 15 February 2020

Time : 10:00

Venue: Braamfisherville Multi-purpose Centre

SOWETO

Media houses attending the event are kindly requested to send confirmations to Hlulani Mashaba on 073 064 5863 or hlulani.mashaba@gauteng.gov.za
