Gauteng embarks on Easter Road Safety campaign

Gauteng MEC for Public Transport and Roads Infrastructure, Jacob Mamabolo will on Thursday, 01 April 2021, launch the Provincial Easter Road Safety Campaign at the Meyerton Weighbridge in the Midvaal.

The campaign, which will be conducted jointly with law enforcement agencies, will focus on road safety interventions that seek to encourage motorists to adhere to road signage/rules, rest during trips to lessen driver fatigue as well as checking vehicles for overloading and unroadworthiness.

The campaign will also be carried out at various parts of the Province including the R101 and Bosman Taxi Rank on Saturday, 03 April as well as on the N1 on Monday, 05 April 2021.

This is in anticipation of increased traffic volumes over the Easter weekend throughout Gauteng.

Details of the launch are as follows:

Date: Thursday, 01 April 2021

Time: 16h00

Venue: R59 (Meyerton Farms Weighbridge)

Ends!
