MEC Mamabolo to provide status update on the N12 sinkhole

Gauteng MEC for Public Transport and Roads Infrastructure Jacob Mamabolo will tomorrow brief the media on the latest developments regarding the Snake Road sinkhole that developed along the route in Benoni, City of Ekurhuleni.

The MEC will be joined by a team of geotechnical experts who have been investigating remedial repair methodologies to the road.

The road remains closed. Motorists are urged to use Tom Jones Offramp when travelling towards Heidelberg and those from the south are urged to use Pioneer and turn right to Bunyan Street.

Details of the visit are as follows:

Date: Tuesday, 19 November 2019

Time: 12h00

Venue: Snake Road, N12 Southbound in Benoni

Ends!
